Hello Everyone,

Hope you are all keeping well. Planet maths books can be accessed on the following link <https://www.folensonline.ie/planet-maths> if children do not have them at home. If you have any problems accessing the books via the link, please let me know and I will email you photographs of each page required.

Small World books can be accessed on cjfallon.ie. Again, if there are any issues please let me know and I will email you photographs of the pages

Could you please take photographs of children's work and email them to me on chloe@kilcoonans.ie for feedback?

If you have any other questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Ms. Waldron
