

Senior Infants 25-05-2020 - 29-05-2020

Reading

The children have completed their three class text books for this year.

Well done!

Normally we would move on to the purple supplementary readers -

What's in the box? and Oh what fun!

These books can be found on Folens online. You register as a teacher using Prim20 as the school roll number. You go to the Senior Infants section and you should be able to find the books there. You can then pick one of the books for this week.

Purple words

Revise the purple words, a few at a time, to ensure the children can remember them. There are 51 new words in total to remember.

Writing

Modern handwriting B - Pages 60, 61, 62, 63

Children can also use their purple project copies to write in and draw a picture in the blank space. They can make up their own sentences or base their writing on Stop that dog.

I sent home a phonics booklet which the children can work away on at their own pace. The children can write their own little story in the "My little book" - Write on one side and draw a picture on the other side. This can be a work in progress for the children and can be completed in their own time.

Many thanks for coming to collect your child's books on Wednesday. It was nice to see the yard busy again! I have marked work in the rest of the books that went home the last day but, as always, please undertake the activities that are possible for your child and for yourself.

Kind regards,
Teresa
